INDIVIDUAL EFFICIENCY

F. L. Woodman, Principal.

Individual efficiency is, or ought to be, the desire of every life. To be competent, capable and efficient in some department of human endeavour is a laudable ambition. To be healthy, intelligent, contented, happy, and at the same time useful, is the unvoiced aspiration of every heart. To run the race of life successfully and win honourably by reason of merit and efficiency is an ambition that ought to find a habitation in every human soul.

There are many essential qualities that enter into efficiency, but two of them I wish to emphasize. The first is a definite purpose. "The world stands aside for the man who knows where he is going." Purpose makes effort efficient—a charge of powder in a gun barrel to give it direction will drive a steel-capped bullet through six inches of solid oak, while the same charge back of a load of bird shot will scatter the shot over a large space but with scarcely enough effort to penetrate cardboard. The man who wins in life, who really succeeds, who brings down the big game worth bagging, is the man who welds the bird shot of his efforts into a steel-capped ball and fires it with steady aim at some objective point. "A lame man on a straight road", says Bacon, "reaches his destination sooner than a horseman who misses the way". And many of the failures of life are made by men who lack purpose; horsemen who have lost their way.

A second quality that will help to give efficiency is persistency. Pluck and persistency are just as essential as purpose. It takes more than one wave to polish the rock and to rim the ocean's beach with sand; and effort to be effective must be repeated again and again with tireless persistency. One may be disappointed with what he accomplishes but,

"If what shone afar so grand
Turn to nothing in your hand,
On again—the virtue lies
In the struggle, not the prize."

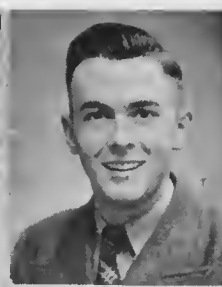

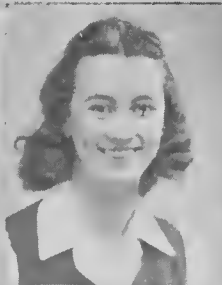

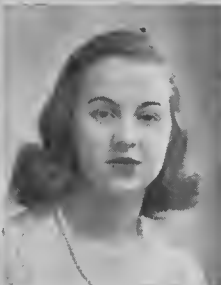

"The time will come when you will hear me", shouted young Disraeli, the son of a hated and persecuted race, as members of Parliament hissed and laughed at his maiden speech. This was the unstudied announcement of that uncompromising will that pushed the young Hebrew into the front rank of British orators and gave England a great prime minister and the world a great statesman.

Robert Bruce, discouraged and defeated, but not crushed, hid from his enemies in an old hut. Above him he watched a spider as it failed six successive times to string its silken cord from one rafter to another. "I am that spider", thought Bruce. "If it succeeds I'll win". The seventh effort was successful and Bruce leaped to his feet, rallied his scattered forces, struck a decisive blow, and rescued his beloved country. The tenacity of a spider inspired a leader, saved a throne and taught the world a great lesson.

Young people who expect to win in life and to serve the race must not be afraid of repeated, continued and persistent effort; such effort is always rewarded—from it comes skill, efficiency, power and victory.

Five years old . . . The Acatec is young but well developed. Although Western has had a Year Book for over twenty years, the name "Acatec" only came into being five years ago when the Technical Department was added to the Academic High School. We take pleasure in presenting this issue to you.

Another year has past, another year of achievement as far as Western is concerned. Still holding the Rugby Championship, we marched on to conquer the Basketball title. Many Western students have received Scholarships and Awards. Lily Wainwright, who had previously won the McKillop Scholarship for grade eleven, succeeded in winning the Bennett Scholarship for grade twelve. Muriel Buchanan, following in Lily's footsteps, obtained the McKillop Scholarship. Percy Browning, who is now working in the Ogden Shops, carried off the Western Canada Memorial Scholarship, provided by the Home and School Association. In the spring, at the Track Meet, Western came home with top honors. The Johnny Shapter Memorial Trophy went to George Mitchell, and again the two-mile cup was won by Bob Rosser. During the year, four Western students achieved honorable mention in the Quill and Scroll Society contests: Wilda Oxley, Phyllis Wright, Ruth Hurlbert, Muriel Buchanan.

The Mirror has put forth another successful paper, and a great play has been produced in our halls. Students have come and students have gone, and Western Canada is still on top.

A large number of Western's sons have pledged their lives to King and Country, as may be seen on the Honor Roll. Due to the foresight of the Calgary School Board, in providing this Technical High School, and also to the highly qualified faculty, Western is contributing in a practical way to Canada's War effort. Not only is work being done in our own shops and in the ranks, but students have been given positions requiring great skill in Canada's machine shops. When the story of our War Effort is told, Western will be able to point with pride to her contributions.

Western is a great school and we should all help to keep her that way.

Western's Honor Roll

The Senior Boys' Hi-Y have drawn up this Honor Roll of Western boys who have joined His Majesty's Forces since 1935. As far as we know this list is as complete as possible at the time of publication.

TO THE FORCES

Here's to the British forces,
In the air, on land, and sea,
Who fight to defend our Empire,
And our British Liberty.

Thousands of them have fallen
In France, and Greece, and Crete.
Whilst over the British Islands
Many their death did meet.

They fight not with the courage
That rises from despair,
No! their's is certain victory,
A triumph all shall share.

So here's to the British forces,
Those men so brave and true,
Those men who serve the Empire
In khaki and in blue.

They do not fight for conquest,
Nor to prove that they are bold;
They are pledged to defend the freedom
Their fathers fought to hold.

Think not they find it easy
To leave their homes and go
To fight the mortal battles,
'Gainst a cruel and vicious foe.

But off they go and fight them,
And show the whole world why
The British Empire liveth,
When other empires die.

OUR COVER

THANKS !

The Acatec staff extends its sincere thanks to the faculty and to the student body for their support and encouragement during the publication of this book. Thanks are also extended to the printers, photographers and engravers whose professional advice and help was deeply appreciated by this staff.

—THE EDITORS.

IN APPRECIATION

It has been a source of pleasure to read and re-read the many contributions sent in by Western students to the Literary Department of the Acatec.

Much of the material was of such a superior nature that we decided to leave the decision to an outside judge. He had no easy task to decide what to eliminate. Our sincere thanks go to this gentleman, Rev. Cadigan.

To all the contributors we say "Thank You" for your co-operation. If your article was not published, remember we had to have variety, and since our space was limited, much good material could not be published.

We take this opportunity of thanking all those who have so freely given of their time, effort and talent, to the support and betterment of the Literary Department of the Acatec. To the teachers of Western, particularly those teaching French and English, we wish to give a special "Thank You". By your kind co-operation, ample material was supplied. Especially do we appreciate the untiring efforts of Mr. Irwin, whose hand has guided the literary efforts all through the year and whose help has been invaluable.

"Western", and the Second World War

By T. M. PARRY

King George VI.

AS THESE words are written, there are those about us who fear for the future of all free nations. In Asia, Japan is on the "loose"—the Phillipines have been overrun; the same fate has befallen the Dutch East Indies. Singapore, bulwark of the British Empire in the Far East is in enemy hands—taken from the land side—an impossibility changed into realistic fact. The road to India is open, while statesmen argue endlessly over technicalities concerning her freedom—with slavery looming over the horizon. Australia may be the next democracy to be invaded by the foe; or perhaps, in glorious stead, become a mighty jumping off place for the A.B.C.D. forces to beat back the Japanese menace—back to whence it came, and beyond.

In Europe, Germany's mighty "blitz" machine has received its first set-back. Powerful Russian armies, aided by the resources of her allies, the British Empire, and the United States of America, have driven back the enemy, inflicting terrific losses upon him. The German army is just now emerging from the paralyzing, white terror of Russia's severest winter in 150 years—a winter which caught them unprepared to withstand its icy blasts. Men were frozen in their tracks; mechanized equipment could not turn a wheel because of oil congealed to a solid in their engines, and ice gripping their running gear immobile. Spring is now at hand—two powerful adversaries face one another to begin a mighty struggle—the future history of mankind is about to be written in blood, sweat and tears in this year of awful crisis, 1942.

The immediate picture is not a bright one, but nevertheless, there is growing confidence for the future. The British Empire totally unprepared in the beginning, has withstood the full fury of the long prepared Nazi might alone these past two years. Now we have powerful friends and allies, first, Russia, and now the United States of America are once again on our side. Her mighty production machinery is getting underway with increasing momentum daily. On land, on the sea, and in the air, the Allies grow stronger every day. The British Commonwealth Air Training Plan—Canada's greatest contribution to the common cause, is an accomplished fact and is now turning out a steady stream of trained air crews to man the aircraft emerging from huge plants, humming

JUNIOR'S DREAM

By Walter Schlotthauer, XI-A

A doctor I intend to be,
I'll open up a surgery,
Where I'll examine throats and tongues,
And listen-in on hearts and lungs.

Then ask "How is your appetite?"
And, "Do you sleep quite well at night?"
I'll then look wise and bite my lip,
While I write a prescription slip.
For pills or something in a bottle,
To take, or gargle, for the throttle.

For richer patients who can pay,
I'll order a complete X-ray,
And then if I am still in doubt,
Take tonsils and appendix out.

I'll specialize in boys' diseases,
And cure them of their coughs and sneezes,
Measles, mumps and stomach ache,
With medicine that is nice to take.

I will not their digestions spoil
With castor or cod liver oil.
When I have learned a doctor's skill,
'Twill be a pleasure to be ill.

AIR RAID

At six o'clock the sirens sound,
And everyone goes underground,
Down the garden, helter-skelter,
Dive into the air-raid shelter.

Chairs and gas mask follow suit,
Father enters minus boot!
Yelling out the old refrain,
Those dirty Huns are here again.

They all doze off in fitful sleep,
While up above the searchlights creep;
The heavy bombs begin to fall,
And sister clutches tight her doll.

Soon is heard the welcome "clear",
And pop goes out to have a beer!
The only way we'll beat these tramps,
Is by buying "War Savings Stamps"!

—Ray Abernethy.

ABOUT THE ACATEC . . .

Producing Western's Year Book is the largest financial undertaking of the school, involving this year around $900.00. This sum comes, of course, from student subscriptions and from our advertisers. Here are a few of the items for which this money is spent: printing, engraving, photography, supplies for the business staff and for the art editors. All available money is spent on the book each year,, but no debts can be incurred. The Acatec is not run to make a profit.

An earnest attempt is made to give Western students the best value possible for their money. For example, there are many more square inches of pictures than most year books have. Just look over the cuts in this issue. This is partly possible because of the larger size of the pages, which cuts down printing costs. And, while we're talking about the size, this larger format is popular with most students, according to an extensive poll taken last year. The larger book opens more easily than the small, thick type, and also allows for better page lay-outs.

This year, due to increased prices of materials, decreased revenue and metal shortage, we have had to use zinc engravings instead of copper as formerly. However the results are entirely satisfactory.

The staff has done a great deal of work on the Acatec this year, in producing the book itself, and in securing advertising contracts. Much of the work is monotonous and exacting, but, on the whole, it has been an interesting and valuable experience. They only hope you like the results of their labors and will value your Acatec more and more each year.

—THE 1942 STAFF.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Each year the President of the Students' Union presents a message to the students of the school on behalf of the Students' Council. I am glad to take advantage of this opportunity of saying a word of farewell to those who are graduating and a word of appreciation to all.

The graduate students who are closing one chapter in their life and opening another, will have pleasant memories of their various activities, both in classes and sports. These activities have been arranged so as to give them the best possible training for the years that lie ahead. Whether they have taken an Academic, Commercial or Technical course, they have acquired a solid educational foundation on which to build their future. This will be of value to them, whether they put on a uniform, go on to University, or go into business or industry. Sport activities aid the student in developing his body, while clubs and hobbies train the student's mind along specialized lines and how to make the most use of his leisure time. Thus the combination of extra-curricular activities and academic studies gives a student the best possible training. You, of the graduating class, should make good use of this training.

To the students who are returning next year, I wish to say that it is your duty and privilege to step into the places left vacant by the graduates. The only way to keep up the high standards of Western Canada is to strive to fill these places better than

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

SENIOR GIRLS

To make the league more exciting and interesting, the Normal School formed a team and challenged us. The game our girls and the teachers-to-be played did not count as they were preliminary to the finals between Western and the Hilltop Squad. When the league stood at 7-3, it looked grim for our senior club, but they fought gallantly to peg two glorious victories, 16-15 and 20-12, to make the series 7-all.

The deciding game was played on neutral floor in the C.C.I. Auditorium bringing the league to a close with Crescent winning by a narrow margin of two points. The final score was 19-17 for Crescent. The line-up was as follows:

INTERMEDIATES

Climaxed by a thrilling 5-all draw, the Intermediate Girls gave sparkling performances in all playoff games to down their opposition in fine style. They lost the starting game by a slim margin but came back with trained shots, super combination and fast set-ups to claim two victories, 15-5 and 30-5.

Shirley Smith proved to be the spearhead of the team as she paced the individual scoring lists in every game, closely followed by Cecilia Walker and Evelyn Kingston, while Maud Suttle managed to loop in several of her special long shots. The line-up was as follows:

Back Row—M. Suttle, S. Smith, N. Williams, C. Huston, E. Suttle.

JUNIOR GIRLS

The Junior quintet, although they did their utmost to reach their goal, slipped behind in the final trial that ended with a rather one-sided score of 14-2. Real good sports and just a little discouraged, the girls will again try to prove their ability next year and bring home the cup.

Everyone played their part well, but probably most credit is due the Zorn, Murdoch and Williams line, which together gained the most baskets for their team. In contrast, the smallest player on the team, pint-sized Pearl Squires, also played stand-out ball throughout the season.

The line-up was as follows:

Back Row—S. Barenholtz, D. Williams, A. Russell, K. Smith, L. Zorn.

Front Row—D. Carr, J. Murdoch, P. Squires, E. Hollis, J. Kennedy, I. Sutfin, V. Mills

BOYS' HOUSE LEAGUE BASKETBALL

The Boys' House League had undoubtedly the best season it has ever had. Twenty teams of all grades comprised the background of the success. The boys played good clean basketball and fought to the end of each game. Even the Grade Ten teams were strong enough to give the best of the grade twelve teams a close game.

The classy XII-E team capped top honors, beating X-C to receive the Lon A. Cavanaugh Trophy. Headed by Jack Graves and Morris Silver, this team went all through the series with only one defeat. This defeat came the first game by Don Bell's XII-F and G team. The latter team went all through the series, up to the semi-finals without a defeat. Their first defeat was received in a sudden death semi-final, when Earl Gill paced his team, XII-B and H, into a sparing victory. This was perhaps the best house league game of the year.

X-C's team was the first Grade Ten team to ever enter into a final game in House League contests. As they are just beginners at Western, and some of them beginners at basketball, they deserve a great deal of credit. They fought hard to receive the honor of playing a grade twelve team in the finals and they certainly gave their opponents a sparing contest.

Don Bell copped the individual scoring with 118 points and was followed closely by Jack Graves with 117 points. The scoring in the games this year was far higher than in any other year.

Following is the personnel of the first six top teams:—

XII-E—Jack Graves, Morris Silver, Ralphe Caffelle, Jim Choppen, Jack Sharpe.

XII-F and G—Don Bell, Don McNeill, Ralph Burvil, Don Krug, Bill Knight.

XII-B and H—Norman Holmes, Earl Gill, Leslie Beroker, Clarence Milner, Bruce MacFarlane.

X-C—Bill Angus, Doug. Robb, John Russell, Don McKenzie, Roy Elford, Bob Bennett, Harold Musgrove.

X-E—Tom Deakin, Mickie Larnoff, Bruce Loomer, Roy Allen, Bill Keir, Art Hall.

XI-A—Jack Bothwell, Jimmy Carrington, Ray Abernethy, Ronald Crawford, Dick Bradford.

INTERSCHOLASTIC BASKETBALL

The close of the House League saw the opening of the Interscholastic Basketball League. Western's three entries, one senior and two juniors, experienced a fine year.

Although the senior club ended fourth in the series, they showed fine sportsmanship and always gave their opponents a good game. They stuck close to their opponents in scoring and were never badly beaten. The trophy was won by Ward Steckle's hard-hitting Crescent Seniors.

Caffelle and Choppen led their team with their continual fight and play.

Western should be proud of her junior teams this year, the Argos and Bronks both ended on top of the Interscholastic Junior League and played the two out of three series for the trophy. The hard-hitting Argos outplayed the Bronks and took two straight to win the championship.

Tokarchuk, Russell, Angus and Lainoff were the top ranking players on the Argo team, while Rintoul, Runril and Bennett did the honors for the Bronks.

The Bronks, although not so fast and tricky as the Argos, deserve a good deal of credit for their fight and spirit. They proved too good a rival for the Argos in one of the games when they beat them, and in another when they tied them.

Although only a junior team, the Argos showed just as fine class as any team in Calgary. Mr. Souter should be proud to have been the coach of this worthy team and he did a splendid job of coaching. Mr. Dobson, M. Silver, Don Bell and J. Graves also did a capable job of coaching.

Following is the line-up of the teams:—

Seniors—Choppen, Caffelle, Burvill, Carrington, Abernethy, Holmes, Sharpe, Ridell, Lundy, Bothwell and Maginley.

Argos—Robb, Tokarchuk, Currie, Deakin, Brass, Angus, Russell, Goddard, Cooper, Lainoff and Treklenberg.

Bronks—McKenzie, Strang, Elford, Runrill, Bennett, Rintoul, Malin, Switzer, Willets, Davies, Paulson and Fercho.

SENIOR HOCKEY

A strong and fast team represented Western in the battle for the Senior Hockey Championship this year. In the first game Central had the leading end of a 3-2 score. Crescent nosed out the Western boys in the following game with a very close 2-1 score. St. Mary's was severely beaten in the third game with a 9-3 score.

In the play-offs, Western lost out to the Crescent sextet at 5.2. Fine hockey was displayed by the Western boys throughout the series and although they did not win, Western owes them much.

INTERSCHOLASTIC TRACK AND FIELD MEET—1941.

Sparked by George Mitchell, who with 13 points captured the Intermediate Boys' Aggregate Shield, Western made a general clean-up at the Interscholastic Track and Field Meet this year.

In the senior section, Bob Rosser showed a clean pair of heels to the rest of the field and broke his 1940 record by nearly 10 seconds, thus touring the two-mile course in 10:44 $\frac{3}{5}$. Western was the only school to have their complete team finish. The following are the standings of this team: 1. Bob Rosser, 3. Art Jeal, 4. Art Postlethwaite, 5. Gordie McIlroy, 7. Bruce Compton, and 8. Morris Silver. Out of the 18 boys that started only 11 finished.

Ray Nicol won the 880-yard run in 2:14 $\frac{3}{5}$, and Gordie Atkinson won the running broad jump with 19' $\frac{6}{4}$ ". Ernie Trigg took third place in the 12 pound shot-put, and K. Caffelle tied for fourth position in the high jump. In the 100 yard dash, Bob Cruse placed fourth.

George Mitchell started the day right in the intermediate section by winning the broad jump with a leap of 18' $\frac{1}{4}$ ", Art Cooper followed for a third place.

Bill Cudmore broke the tape in the 100 yard dash in 10 $\frac{4}{5}$ seconds. 1:36 $\frac{1}{5}$ was the time P. Gates took to win the 660 yards. Ray Abernethy made fourth place.

Many of the junior boys placed in their events to count more points towards the Grand Aggregate Shield. L. Wood broke the tape in the 660 yard run, with B. Keown placing third. Keown made fourth place in the 75 yard dash and in the shot-put, C. Knight and A. Coulter placed third and fourth respectively. M. Switzer gained fourth position in the standing broad jump, and A. Coulter brought Western more points in the high jump with a second place.

FINAL STANDINGS

	Jr.	Int.	Sen.	2-Mile	Total
Western	15	41	15 $\frac{1}{2}$	5	76 $\frac{1}{2}$

Crescent	17 $\frac{1}{2}$	5	26 $\frac{1}{2}$	0	49
St. Mary's	2	7	7	0	15

Western made a clean sweep in the Girls' Titles, the juniors copping the T. Eaton trophy and the seniors capturing the Hudson's Bay Co. trophy, while the winning of the grand aggregate secured them the Dr. Singleton Cup. Crescent girls ranked second and Central third.

It was a grand afternoon despite the slight breeze and the extensive program, that saw several records hung up, was run off without a hitch.

In winning the Track Relay, Western junior girls were timed in 61 seconds, three seconds faster than the previous mark. Crescent acclaimed a high jump of 4 feet, 5 inches, to beat the old record of 4 feet, 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Western juniors set a new record of 27 $\frac{3}{5}$ in winning the girls' shuttle relay.

GIRLS' HOUSE LEAGUE BASKETBALL

Probably due to the late start of school in September, the league this year ended in two divisions. The title to be shared by teams X-C, D and G and XII (2).

X-C, D and G—Norma Williams, X-C; Beatrice Bailey, X-G; Joyce Kennedy, X-G; Winnie Read, X-D; Tiny McCleary, X-G; Audrey Rogers, X-D.

This team made a wonderful showing for any one team, losing only one game out of seven played. The school will be well represented by this combination team of rooms X-C, D and G, as every member has been chosen for either the Intermediate or Junior Inter-School Team.

XII (2)—Florence Asselstine, Flora McNeill, Marg. Jefferson, Shirley Stevens, E. Brauner.

Full co-operation and careful thought-out play alone is responsible for the rank of this team. A wonderful captain, obedient players.

SKI CLUB

The activities of the Ski Club were hampered by lack of snow on local hills. Despite this, the club had a fairly active season. Color movies were shown at a joint meeting of the Central and Western Clubs. A bus was chartered to take the teams to Norquay but the shortage of gasoline cancelled this trip and the clubs had to be content with romping around the city.

In the competition between Western and Central for the Union Milk Trophy, Western once again lost out to Central.

The Western team consisted of: A. Patterson, D. Ramsey and F. White.

PROJECTIONIST CLUB

The Projectionist Club has passed another successful year of service to the students, and teachers of this school. There were twenty-eight members, who received experience in operating the projector for the teachers.

We wish to thank Mr. Allan and the Radio Club for inviting us to co-operate with them in putting over the show of February 3rd. We wish also to thank Mr. Choppin of the General Electric for the use of their film and equipment which was used throughout the year.

The teachers and members of the Projectionist Club wish to thank Mr. Bowden and the members who partook in their grand work of allowing this service club to be.

President, John McDonald; Vice-President, Bill Wells; Secretary, Ted Gutterud.

Again, as during the four previous years, the Western Tumbling Club has had a very successful season. This year's records showed an enrolment of 85 boys, slightly less than the record 1939-40 season. This year's marked success was due to the rapid progress made by the boys in the various classes of tumbling.

The various classes consist of C, B, A and H tumbling, and boxhorse. These, along with advanced classes of springboard and parallel bar work, have proved very interesting to the club members.

The only individual fees were an entrance fee of 10c and an additional fee of 15c for crests, if desired.

The annual display, which as usual was a great success, was staged in the Western Canada Auditorium on April 22nd before an enthusiastic crowd of students and parents.

The following are the names of the boys who took part in the Tumbling Display: Art Jeal, Jack Chambers, Earl Bingham, Don McKenzie, Roy Allan, Don Bell, Clayton Anderson, Jack Sanderson, Lorne Dowling, Nick Yakunin, Jerry Hesson, Allen Hammond, Norman Smith, Dalwin Stanford, Walter Schlotthauer, Charlie Roberts, Stuart Thompson.

This year's executive, which was elected early last October, consisted of: Honorary President, Mr. J. J. Souter; President, Jack Chalmers; Vice-President, Earl Bingham; Secretary, Bob Guise.

"Did you know dear, that that tunnel we passed through was two miles long and cost $12,000,000?" asked the young man of his sweetheart.

"Oh, really!" she replied, as she started to rearrange her dishevelled hair. "Well, it was worth it, wasn't it?"

THE SENIOR GIRLS' HI-Y

The Senior Girls' Hi-Y started the year 1941-42 with a membership of seventeen. The first project of the club, which is a service club, was to fill a hamper, which was given at Christmas to a family who was in need of it. In order to buy the supplies for the hamper, the girls held a Candy Sale which was successful.

Early in the new term the Senior Girls' and the Boys' Hi-Y's had two meetings together. At these meetings, ideas of the prime requisites of the ideal girl and the ideal boy, which had been formulated by each club at previous meetings, were brought up. Later in the term the girls who had not been inducted, were formally made members by a committee from the Central Girls' Hi-Y. Since many of the girls will be leaving at the end of this year, the Hi-Y took in three new members just before Easter. They were: Margaret Armstrong, Jocelyn Sara and Shirley Stevens.

During the Easter holidays many of the girls attended the Conference organized by Gamma Chi, and held at the Y.W.C.A. The main topic under discussion was "Hi-Y in the Future". The Conference ended with an excellent dance held at the Glencoe Club, and a Church Parade held on Sunday at St. Stephen's Church.

For the rest of this year and the beginning of next, the girls have a great deal planned, including: an attempt to boost the sale of War Savings Stamps by having each girl buy one every week; the making of new girls' crests (Hi-Y); the giving of small talks on various subjects, by each member of the club, etc.

This year has been a success for the Senior Girls' Hi-Y and we are hoping that next year will be even more so.

JUNIOR GIRLS' HI-Y

The year started off with a large membership. Elections were held and the officers were as follows:

President Nana Canning
Vice-President Lila Zorin
Secretary Nora Johnston
Treasurer Evelyn Castle

A Get-Together Party was held for the members at the first of the term. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.

During the year, several speakers gave interesting talks. Some meetings were given to discussion about the Hi-Y motto. A Skating Party was planned but a great deal of people were disappointed as it was postponed because of bad weather. Many of the members attended the Conference held during the Easter Holidays, given by the Gamma Chi. Following the Easter Holidays, Nana Canning resigned from her office of President, and Louise Robertson took over for the rest of the term. A successful year will be ended by a get-together of the members of the Junior Girls' Hi-Y. Our mentor was Miss Bracken, the most successful mentor the Junior Girls' Hi-Y have had, and we hope to see her back next year.

orary President and Sponsor; Gordon Moorhouse, President; Vernon Harris, Vice-President; and Jim Sinclair, City Representative.

Mr. Humphries, although a business man, donates much of his time to conducting round-table discussions on biblical topics of current interest. The Westernites always look forward with pleasure to the visits of their Alberta Secretary, Mr. George Dugard.

Both boys' and girls' groups meet on Friday. The girls' group is led by Mrs. Skitch. Among the guest speakers this club has had, was Mr. Thomas, a Missionary from Brazil. The able President of this group is Helen Scrimgeour, and Secretary-Treasurer, Jean Bulmer.

The Westernites have been very prominent at the civic social affairs, and have successfully carried on a few of their own.

INTER-SCHOOL CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Inter-School Christian Fellowship organization is spread throughout Great Britain, Canada and the United States. It creates groups of young men and women who wish to study the Holy Bible, into one vast organization of Christian Fellowship.

The Boys' Group has increased greatly since its first year, 1940, when it boasted only six members. At present its efficient executive includes: Mr. K. P. Humphries, Hon-

THE RED CROSS KNITTING AND SEWING GROUP

The Red Cross Knitting and Sewing Group had a very busy year. The group met every Monday after school. There were approximately 15 constant members.

Projects for the year were: A Penny Campaign, held nearly every month, half the funds went to the Social Service branch of Western's Red Cross. Then part of the funds were used to send parcels to the Group's "Lone Soldier" overseas. Articles made by the girls were knitted baby jackets and layettes, pants and sweaters, rompers, overalls, surgical gowns, crib covers, children's kimonas, soldier's scull caps and mitts, hot water bottle bags and numerous other articles.

As this is a Social Service Group, few socials were held by the members.

Teachers in charge were: Miss Cannon, Miss Ellis, Miss Edwards and Miss Rogers.

The Group would like to thank those girls of the Sewing Classes for helping them by sewing so many articles.

"OUR TOWN"

The play "Our Town", produced by the dramatic department this year was probably the most difficult and most successful ever put on at Western. Played with only chairs and tables and two garden trellises, "for those who think they have to have scenery", the drama, for its lack of scenery, was beautiful and moving to watch.

The narrator (played by Con Bain), in his smooth, assured way, introduces the play, the characters, and points out the layout of the town. Throughout the play he continues to re-appear to give additional information, prepare you for the entrances of the characters, and generally co-ordinate the play.

The skillful pantomime, assured acting and beautiful lighting, which represented many months of hard work and co-operation by Miss Betty Mitchell and her cast.

Seated—E. Castle, M. Armstrong, M. Buchanan, B. McIlroy, L. Douglas,
A. Currie, L. Ellis.

On November 24th, 1941, speeches were presented by the candidates to the student body. And again we had a girl candidate, running for the position of President. Muriel Buchanan, as leader of the "Western Aggressives", introduced her party of Gordon McIlroy, Bernice McIlroy and Lois Douglas.

"Collegiate Independents", led by Duncan McGregor, ran a good party with his members being Lillian Ellis, Audrey Currie and Don Wilson.

The third party was the "Campus Progressives", with last year's Vice-President, John Skene, running for President, and Art Cooper, Margaret Armstrong and Evelyn Castle, comprising the rest of his party.

Then November 25th dawned, and some 1200 students went to the polls to mark their ballots and pick their leaders.

The final standing was:

President	John Skene
Vice-President	Art Cooper
Secretary	Margaret Armstrong
Treasurer	Don Wilson

You can see by the way the students voted they picked winners, and winners they were, as this year showed in the work they did for the school.

So, Council, the student body thanks you for the swell job you've done this year in keeping Western at the top.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club has 23 members. President, Mike Yakunin; Vice-President, Cliff Ohlhauser; Treasurer, George McCullough. These boys put on a picture show and made a profit of $25.00, with which they bought an amplifier. This amplifier is available for rent by any school society.

This club does a lot of interesting things such as teaching the Morse Code, which turned out very successfully.

"Our Town"

1. "But Myrtle, the times I've been over those hills."
2. The townspeople of Grovers' Corners.
3. "Do I believe in it, I s'pose I do."
4. Four little maids from school are we.

WESTERN CANADA BOYS' HI-Y

G. Ramsey, W. Angus, V. Bently, D. Copeland, J. Abram, L. Jack, G. Egleston, G. Palmer, F. Cousins.
 G. Gray, B. Bain, D. McGregor, D. Hesson, L. Elder, D. Short, D. Standerwick, J. Rogers, J. Choppen.
 Mr. Johnson (Hon. Member), B. Pillige, D. Davies, A. Longair, B. Logan, B. Maginley, R. Culley, Mr. Dobson (Mentor).
 D. Wilson (Treas.), A. Cooper (Vice-Pres.), D. McNeill (Pres.), A. Patterson (5th Mem.), J. Skene (Sec.)

There was a great deal of activity in the Boys' Hi-Y this term. The new executive consisted of: Don McNeil, President; Art Cooper, Vice-President; John Skene, Secretary; Don Wilson, Treasurer; and Art Patterson, fifth member. Various committees were formed for special tasks, all of which were performed excellently. As Mr. Stewart, who has been the Mentor for the past few years, joined the army, Mr. Dobson was chosen to take his place.

Two large groups of new members were inducted during the year. The first group in November at a banquet at the Empress Grill, consisted of: Art Cooper, Fred Cousins, Doug. Copeland, Jim Choppen, Leonard Greenberg, Bert Maginley, Duncan McGregor, Bob Pillige, Gordon Palmer, Doug. Short, Dave Standerwick and Gordon Ramsey.

The second group induction in March was also held at the Empress Grill and consisted of: Jack Abram, Bonar Bain, Bill Angus, Vernon Bentley, Dick Hesson, Lionel Elder, George Egleston, Gordon Gay, Art Longair and Jim Rogers.

With thanks to the efforts of the boys in the club, over 600 Christmas Cards were sold throughout the school. This was one of the largest campaigns the school has ever seen. Tables were set up in the halls, where boys sold cards between periods and before and after school hours, making sure that every student was given the opportunity to buy some.

The design on these cards was identical to that of last year's, except for the school crest, which was slightly larger. The school crest and motto, and a simple but appropriate verse made the card very smart.

This year, as before, the Hi-Y took over the sale of school sweaters which were sold at a very reasonable price. No profit was made on this project by the club. An added attraction to the sweater sale this year was the new model of zipper-fastening coat sweaters.

The Hi-Y motto is:

To create, maintain and extend
 Throughout the school and community
 High standards of Christian character,
 And to stand together on and for
 The Platform of clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship and clean living.

THE FRESHMAN'S PROM

This successful event took place on November 17th at Western Canada Auditorium. The Freshman's Prom was the first dance of the year. It was to introduce the new students to the old ones. This was successfully done.

Jerry Fuller and his gentleman were in attendance, they surprised everybody by having a Conga line. Practically everybody joined in and enjoyed themselves; it made a very colorful display and amused the spectators a great deal. There were several prizes given for spot dances. Cold drinks were served during the intermission.

THE SADIE HAWKINS DANCE

Congratulations to the Girls' Association for a very successful Sadie Hawkins Dance, which was held on December 5th. Jerry Fullers Orchestra supplied music for approximately two hundred and fifty dancers. The girls are also to be congratulated on there very attractive programmes which included a few novelty dances. Prizes were given to the winners of two spot dances, the prizes were a compact, tie, corsage and dance tickets. Cold drinks which were sold during the evening were much appreciated by all.

THE WINTER WHIRL

With the aid of the Boys' Hi-Y, the Students' Council made this mid-winter dance a great success. Adrian McCrea and his orchestra provided the music and various novelty dances including "The Conga". Various prizes were given for spot dances and refreshments were sold at intermission.

WESTERN CANADA HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

Western Canada Home and School Association has had a very successful year with a membership of 100. Many of the teachers have contributed to our programs by explaining different phases of the school curriculum. One of our most outstanding meetings was our "Father's Night" in February. Members of the school choir and orchestra took part, as well as displays of P.T. by both girls' and boys' classes. Another meeting which was a practical proof of the opportunities available to our girls, was a combined demonstration and talk by members of Home Economics and Home Making classes.

One of our new objectives was the inauguration of the Western Memorial Scholarship. $50.00 to be presented annually to a Grade XII student for general proficiency, citizenship, and contribution to the school spirit.

WESTERN CHOIR

The Western Choir consists of approximately 42 voices, the best voices from each music class.

During the year, several highlights took place. On December 19th a combined choir of Western and Central High students presented a program of Christmas Carols over CFCN. On February 17th, the choir presented a group of selections for the Home and School Association, and from the 17th to 20th of the same month, they sang for "Our Town". On this occasion, the girls' choir was augmented by the addition of a group of tenors and basses, selected from among the boys' classes.

April 20th the choir sang for the Calgary Demonstration Festival combining Western and Central choirs once again. The Herald reporter stated: "Particularly to be commended is the work of Miss Mary Makar with a group of some 50 young ladies from Central and Western Canada High Schools. They sang two three-part songs unaccompanied, with excellent style and fine intonation."

The choir has performed at school assemblies, and of course, will take its part in the coming Graduation ceremonies.

WESTERN ORCHESTRA

This happens to be somewhat of a "lean" year, but the spirit is excellent. The orchestra consists of: Clayton Anderson, Jean Atkinson, Anne Belzberg, Stuart Conlin, Catherine Cushing, Tom Deakin, Joyce Ray, Walter Schaber, Stewart Thomson, Ross Thomas, Aubrey Winter, Florence Youngberg.

The orchestra has been called upon several times to assist in school assemblies. On February 11th the combined orchestras of Western and Central High presented several numbers for the Home and School Association.

On Graduation Day the orchestra will once again be led by Miss Mary Makar, B.A., L.R.S.M., instructor of music.

THE WESTERN MIRROR

The first issue of the Western Mirror was published on October 31st, 1941. The feature announcement of this issue was about Percy Browning having won the Memorial Scholarship. There was a story and the names of 21 boys in the Armed Forces who have been killed overseas.

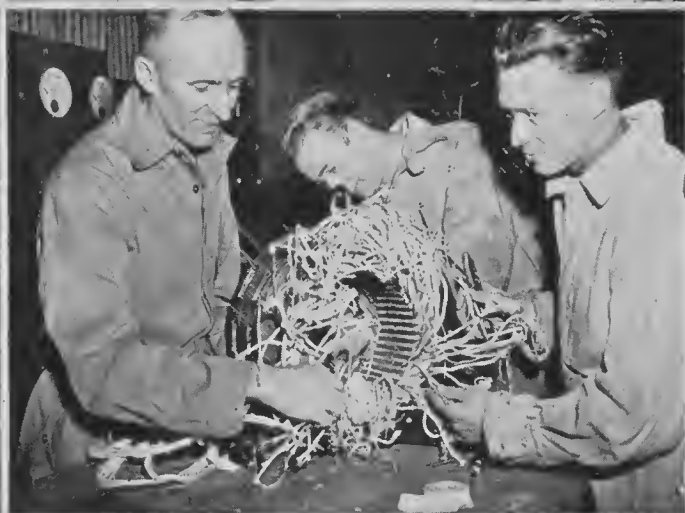

The next issue was published on November 21st, starring the Students' Council, elections and results.

The last issue of 1941, called the Overseas Edition, was published on December 5th, copies were mailed to the ex-students in the Armed Forces overseas. It contained a message from the Calgary School Board, and also names of all students who had enlisted in activities of war. The school clubs gave accounts of their war efforts during the year. This issue was one of the largest, consisting of 16 pages.

In every edition there were two pages of cartoons contributed by students. We were very fortunate during the year to run short thrillers by Pearl Squires.

A total of fifteen issues will be completed by the end of this 1941-42 term.

THE CERCLE FRANCAIS

The "Cercle Francais" holds its regular monthly meeting at Crescent Heights High School. This "French Cercle" is a club composed of French students from the several Calgary High Schools.

A pleasant Friday evening is spent at this club. The meeting is conducted in French. Although this alarms many students attending a meeting for the first time, the friendliness and courtesy of the members soon set the most backward at ease. The object of the club is to help English-speaking students to speak French.

Western Canada is represented by about 15-20 members. Two Western students are on the executive. Barbara Fish is second vice-president and Ken Simpson is secretary. John Skene is school representative. The club president is Alex Snowdon, a former Western student, Marjorie Lick of Crescent Heights is vice-president.

At present, the "Cercle" is working hard gathering material for a rummage sale to be held on March 7th. The proceeds went to the French Scholarship Fund. Twenty-five dollars has already been contrib-

In Memoriam

HUBERT BRYCE LOVE

Last May, Mr. Love joined the Administration Branch of the Royal Canadian Air Force, stationed at Macleod. He became ill during the first week of August and despite all efforts to save his life, passed away on the eighth day of that month.

In addition to the staff and students of Western, he is remembered by his wife, Mrs. H. B. Love and two children.

MARTHA VIRGINIA LEVITT

The sudden death of Martha shocked the very wide circle of friends and acquaintances which she had in Calgary. While at Western, Martha was outstanding for her scholastic and athletic abilities, and her friendship was treasured wherever it was bestowed. Those of us who knew her well, saw beyond her physical attractiveness to a beauty of mind and spirit which we can never cease to remember.

To her family, in their irredeemable loss, we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

THEY ALL MARCHED ON

By Elizabeth Cowley

Illustrated by Doug. Goodfellow.

HAVE YOU noticed it? Well, you listen for it some day—the ghost tread of the boys who “marched on”. Between bells when Western’s halls are crowded with noisy, hurrying feet, you can catch it—the soft but steady and determined undercurrent—the tramp of Western’s real heroes—the boys who “marched on”.

From bloody battle grounds to blazing deserts, from ragged mountains to tropical island sands and barren Arctic wastes to tangled forest and pathless jungle, the boys who once trod Western’s halls, tread now.

But whether they be piloting thundering massive and deadly bombers over the muffled lights of Berlin, or dodging and twisting in the machine-gun riddled cock-pits of streamlined single-seater fighters over the “White Cliffs”, their thoughts turn wistfully back to Western—so, let us remember them,—crashing into silent oceans with wave upon wave of towering battleship and catlike submarine, they come — our boys — reeling through space in bullet torn ‘chutes—risking their lives daily with clattering Bren, booming cannon and buffeting tank, they come—straight from the heart of “Western”, to cross swords—the swords that Western gave them—with the deadly foes that threaten us—the people they left behind them.

So the least we can do is remember the boys who marched on. They, too, had their problems in the “Physics lab.”, their late slips, their hockey and their history, and not so very long ago. So when we think of them let’s just do a little more than think. Let’s have them know the good old buildings and teachers are just as they left them. So that whether they be peeling “spuds” in the camp across the field, or facing death in perilous canyons at the opposite end of the earth, we can say “we all marched on but we’re coming back with victory for our W.C.H.S., for our Canada, and for our Empire, on which the sun does not, and never will, set.”

THE CANADIAN’S CREED

I believe in the Dominion of Canada as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a sovereign state, being a component part of the British Empire, an association of Sovereign States established under principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my Country to love it; to obey and maintain its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

HITLER'S DREAM

I'll tell you a story—strange it may seem—
Herr Hitler, the Nazi, and his terrible dream:
He was stretched in his coffin and lying in state,
His little moustache was frozen in hate;
So, up to heaven Herr Hitler went straight,
Proudly he goose-stepped to the Golden Gate
But, the look-out angel said in a voice loud and clear:
"On your way, Hitler, you can't come in here."
Herr Hitler replied: "At least you are civil,
I guess that you mean I can go to the devil."
Said Satan: "Boys, I give you fair warning,
I'm expecting Herr Hitler, the Nazi, this morning.
So please get it straight and please get it clear,
We're too bloody good for Herr Hitler down here."
"Oh Satan, oh Satan," Herr Hitler cried,
"Give me a corner, I've nowhere to go."
But Satan said: "No, a thousand times no!"
Then he kicked Hitler's pants and he vanished in smoke,
And just at that moment Herr Hitler awoke,
He was still in his bed and covered in sweat,
Yelling: "Doctor, oh Doctor, this is the worst yet,
To Heaven I won't go, I know that quite well,
But, it's bloody hard lines when you're kicked out of HELL."

WINTER DREAM

Soft, in a velvet, star-pricked sky,
Small milky lights stir, rise and fly
And vanish down the white-clad steep
Where, waiting for their King—they sleep.

Now, o'er the haloed summit lifts
The next proud messenger of the cliffs—
The colours, everywhere, to fling
The coral and amber of their King.

And in the shadowed, frozen wood
The mist of night throws off its hood;
And underneath the reds and golds
The glorious winter dawn unfolds.

From sooty black to pearl to blue—
The winter sky hissed every hue,
And now sky, earth and everything
Wait tense, expectant for their King.

He comes now—slow—majestically—
Once more his well-loved world to see—
The flashing fields, the naked trees,
The glittering mountain tops—all these

Are his. And we, who tramp dark city street
And play and work and sleep and eat
And grumble 'round each daily task,
I think, should have one thing to ask:

That some day, just as stars grow dim,
We too, might stand on this world's brim,
And capture, more than anyone
The beauty of our waking sun.

—Constance Leitch.

THE BALLAD OF THE LAST SUNRISE

His last sunrise: Jim watched the dawn,
And paced his cell, face white and drawn;
False testimony had had its way
The killer had fled—Jim was to pay.

He wondered why Jill did not come
To say good-bye ere he went home.
Footsteps drew near—they'd come for him—
The jailer said, "I'm sorry, Jim."

He breathed the cool, sweet morning air,
The sighing wind was like a prayer;
He stood beneath the fatal tree,
The rope that meant eternity.

A beautiful girl broke through the crowd,
His girl friend Jill, her voice rang loud:
"We rode all night, we got him Jim,
We caught him with the gold on him.

He told it all. Oh, Jim it's true!
He'll pay the price instead of you."
The crowd surged in a mighty roar—
And Jim was free to ride once more.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY

By Cecil Moss, XI-J.

Illustrated by Jack Wemp.

THE LAST man to run was the company doctor, not because he was braver than the rest, but because he was a terrific sleeper. He did not hear the shouts of fire, nor the bosses' bellowing, nor the stampeding of the four hundred men. He would have slept through it all, perhaps to die there, if a man named Bill had not come back to wake him up.

Once awake, the good doctor made excellent time up the mountain, although calculating as he ran just how far and fast he would have to climb to escape being assisted by the coming dynamite blast. He finally collapsed behind a huge block of granite about a quarter of a mile above the camp, blowing magnificently.

As soon as he could breathe without seeing stars, he crawled to the corner of the rock and looked back. The night was a black one, and long racing arms of brush fire ran like rivers over the gulch. Luckily, the brush grew only in the bottom of the gulch and the mountain was bare. There would have been very little danger had the dynamite been stored with utmost care as was usually done, under the ground in a pit.

Suddenly, the doctor made a strangling sound, and leaped to his feet, for he saw a man. The man was standing on the dynamite itself, sprinkling about him with a slender line of hose from the water tank. Even at that distance there was no mistaking the immensely long stilt legs, and the awkward, lurching stride of that fellow stepping around on top of the dynamite cases. It was the fellow who had saved his life, Bill.

The doctor's voice burst out in a hysterical and futile shout, "Bill, get out of there." He stopped shouting, the brush fires booming drowned out his words. Suddenly, a hand grabbed the doctor harshly and instantaneously a voice said, "What's the matter?" It was one of the bosses, and when the doctor told him that a man was down there trying to save the dynamite, he dodged around him and made a wild dash down the mountain. The doctor made a snatch at his wrist and stopped him. The dynamite was ready to go off he said. The boss then explained to him that he must save this man because if it were not for him, Bill would never have done this as he had offered him a job if he proved himself a man. Bill was doing it. The doctor pulled the despairing man behind the rock and waited, nothing happened, and when at last they looked again, they saw that the worst of the fire had swept on up the gulch. They saw Bill nonchalantly, casually, stamping out the sparks.

Now a few of the tougher of the men were moving back in, running clumsily through the hot ashes in their heavy boots. Some of them joined Bill on top of the dynamite and made him stop stamping around. In another five minutes they had a bucket brigade going, damping off the sparks. Presently, the boss started down the mountain and the doctor followed, more slowly. A dazed, flabbergasted, but admiring crowd was banked around Bill.

A couple of the cook tents were still standing, and the doctor dragged Bill into one of these, laid him out on a table and began smearing him with lard. "If I'd known it was going to get so hot," Bill said, "I wouldn't have stayed. I've never been so uncomfortable in my life." "You're sure a hero around here now," the doctor told him. "I ought to be," Bill agreed. "The whole camp would have gone hungry if it wasn't for me. That pile of grub would have gone up like tissue paper. You realize that it takes four days to haul grub from Calgary." "Grub? What grub?" said the doctor. "The pile of grub under the tarpaulin, of course," said Bill. The doctor stood back and looked at him. "Bill, don't you ever breathe this to a living soul. You sit back and take the credit as it comes. But there wasn't any grub under that tarpaulin," said the doctor, "that was a stack of dynamite." There was a faint bleat, and the doctor's voice trailed off. The hero of the day had fainted.

Bill was proving himself a man.

BUSINESS STAFF

COWBOY DANCING CLUB

An innovation was started in Western Canada High School this year in the form of a "Cowboy Dancing Club". Calgary is the centre of a farming and ranching district, and Cowboy Dances are a feature of all this region neighboring on the mountains. For the first time these dances have been brought to a big city. At first, there was a little reticence on the part of the sophisticated city students, but when they became familiar with the terms of the dances, and the application of them, they became exceedingly enthusiastic.

Three teams have been formed, at first it was difficult to interest the boys of the school, but now, if possible, they are more enthusiastic than the girls.

The robust energy of the dances develop a spirit of friendship and comradeship that is unusual in other types of dancing.

The club has mastered nine of a possible seventy-five Cowboy dances. They particularly enjoyed the "Rattlesnake Dance", "Dive for the Oyster", "Star by the Right" and "Gentlemen Swing with the Elbow Swing". The members are looking forward to the continuation of this club next year.

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS

Roosevelt speaks—and the world listens; yes, the whole world. It jumps to its radio and stays there, enthralled, spellbound. Gradually, as he speaks, his words become public property. Fragments are heard on street-corners; they appear in the headlines of all the papers—even the little boy next door knows all about it.

His magnetic personality and resonant voice are not the only reasons why people's emotions are so aroused. There is a deeper reason; somehow, the very essence of man is transmitted along those radio waves. People, stirred, seem to recognize that fact and their attention is compelled.

Roosevelt is a man of the people; chosen by the people for the people. His feet may be firmly planted on the ground but his vision of better things makes him hold his head high. Simply, he is a great man and leader; a perfect example of democracy.

—Jacqueline Lakeland.

"What are you thinking about?"

"Same as you."

"If you do I'll scream."

"Papa," said Johnny Skene, "what do they mean by college bred. Is it different from any other kind of bread?"

"Yes, my son," said father, "it's a four-year loaf."

Mr. Harding—"Bob, what is the meaning of vacuum?"

Bob Newcombe—"Please, sir, I'm not sure. I have it in my head, but I can't express it."

Mr. Woodman—"What are you doing back again?"

Cloaky—"Sir, the inside of your letter said 'Suspended for two months', but the outside said 'Return in ten days'."

Mr. Powell—"If you take 6X from 11Y, what's the difference?"

Borland—"That's what I say, what's the difference?"

"Is Patterson a good driver?"

"Say, when the road turns the same way he does, it's a co-incidence."

Mrs. Robertson—"What would you say is the most common impediment in young people's speech today?"

"Chewing Gum."

Mr. Johnson—"Name some of the lower animals, starting with Smith."

Girl Twenty—"Give me a man that is good, kind and true."

Girl Thirty—"Just give me a man."

The decrepit old car drove up to the toll bridge. "Fifty cents," cried the gateman.

"Sold," replied the driver.

Miss MacKinnon—"Who was Joan of Arc?"

Johnny—"Noah's wife."

Prosecuting Attorney—"Are you acquainted with any members of the jury?"

Witness—"Yes, sir, with more than half of them."

Attorney—"Are you willing to swear that you know more than half of them?"

Witness—"If it comes to that, I'm willing to swear I know more than all of them put together."

Miss McCracken—"What is a synonym?"

Wilson—"The word you use when you can't spell the other one."

They've been treating me like one of the family, and I've stood it as long as I can.

He never knew what happiness was until he got married, and then it was too late.

The sergeant bawled me out for not standing at attention. I had to tell him, "I am at attention. It's my uniform that's at ease."

Co-Editor—"You busy?"

Ed—"Nope."

Co-Ed—"Then let's go to class."

PICTURESQUE SPEECH AND PATTERN

She can best be described as having a beautiful profile all the way down.

Her waist, like the Equator, is an imaginary line.

In our generation the dominant religion seems to be Confusionism.

Her face always looked like a window that had caught the sunset.

Gladys—"What's your design for living?"

Maritta—"A circle."

Gladys—"What do you mean, a circle?"

Maritta—"Oh, I get around."

"WESTERN", and the SECOND WORLD WAR

with activity, night and day. And now, it is to become greater still — a United Nations Air Training Plan.

Soon the tide will change, and with God's help, these United Nations will sweep irresistibly over the enemies of the democracies. Shall we make a forecast—an attack upon the Italian boot to harry Germany from the south; a thrust into Norway, Denmark or France—one, or all three? Or a never ending flow of arms and supplies to our Russian allies to the end that Germany's inevitable collapse must follow from sheer pressure? With the Hun gone, then Japan's rising sun can soon be administered a sudden setting.

The day will come when we shall have the answers to these vital questions—and we will look back upon these days, and with Victory be able to give thought to lesser details in the larger pattern. Lesser, but all and each having their place in the final reckoning.

What of "Western" in those days? Did she play her part? Were her facilities geared to the war effort? Did she give of her youth? Let these facts be put into the record as we await the future, grimly and resolutely.

Yes! Western did give of her youth in those desperate days. Gave them to the armed forces in ever-increasing numbers. Today, the list is long—very long. They are serving in the Navy, in the Army and in the Air Force—commissioned, and in the ranks. Many will never return in mortal cast, but they will frequent our Halls in memory to the end of time. "Their Names Liveth Forevermore".

At Western these days, it is a combination of "business as usual", plus many activities directly attributable to the war. It has been said that this is a technical war, and it is probably in this field that the war has called in greatest measure on Western's plant and equipment.

Most active association with the war effort by the Technical Shops is the training being given in the various departments to prepare army tradesmen, and adult civilian, industrial workers. Commencing in January, 1941, these courses have turned out hundreds of blacksmiths, electricians, motor mechanics and carpenters who eventually return to their units skilled to man and repair the various machines and equipment which make up the organization of the modern army. In additions the civilian training for machinists has supplied hundreds more to enter munition and war manufacturing plants. During the regular school year, these special war classes are held from four in the afternoon until midnight. In July and August, the hours are from 8.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m.

In the beginning, Western's technical staff assisted in the instruction and organization so as to get things going smoothly with the benefit of their experience. Now, the war emergency classes have their own civilian staff of instructors, with the supervisory work being done by Mr. Parry, assisted by Mr. Laing and Mr. Allan.

The fact that we are at war is also reflected in considerable of the shop project work in the high school courses. Some of the work has been based in an experimental sense so far, upon the syllabus of the Air Cadets organization.

One example is a "Flight Trainer", built co-operatively by the Wood and Metal Departments. This machine reacts to its control "stick" and rudder bar similarly to an airplane, giving the operator an introduction to the sensation of climbing, diving, banking and turning.

The Wood Department has made several jigs, and templates from which have been patterned ribs and other airplane structural parts. These have been assembled with the addition of spars and coverings to form wing sections.

Model building work has been embarked upon by both Wood and Automotive Departments. Code practice has been developed in conjunction with the work of the Electrical Department, and the Radio Club. Many of our boys now in the radio units of the armed forces as operators and technicians, owe their start in this field to their association with Western's Radio Club which is sponsored by Mr. Allan.

Much more could be written here of Western's war activities, but they are described in their proper connection with other school work presented elsewhere in these pages.

—T. M. PARRY.

The Executive body includes: President, Evelyn Nelson; Secretary, Dorothy Buchanan; Treasurer, Jean Angus; Press Reporter, Alma Brown.

Other members are: Irene Symons, Bertha Horodesky, Doris McBean, Olive Parker, Doreen Terry and Dorothy Young.

ALEPH GIMMEL MEME

The A.G.M. has twelve Jewish members from all three high schools. The two newest are Anne Wex and Adelle Roginsky. The proceeds of a tea held early in the term went to the Queen's Fund for Air Raid Victims and half the funds each month go to a Charitable Fund in Palestine.

Diana Switzer, President; Gertie Chertkow, Secretary-Treasurer; Bertha Horodesky, Sarah Belzberg, Rosa Fineberg, Rose Bercovice, Gwen Shector, Duna Chaplon, Betty Switzer, Betty Horodesky, and the two members mentioned above comprise this Sorority.

CHI BETA RHO SORORITY

The Chi Beta Rho Sorority, formed in October, 1936, now has a membership of twenty-eight. At the beginning of the school term the following new members were initiated into the Sorority: Louise Robertson, Lorna Wilson, Gloria Garrett, Lois Kelly. The members include girls from both Central and Western. The activities this year have been many and varied. OMEGA CHI DELTA

The Omega Chi Delta Sorority, as did many other Sororities, started this season with a "Rushing Tea." It was decided that five girls should be taken in, namely, Nana Canning, Shirley Patterson, Lenore Rhodes, Valerie McCaw and Kay Moody. Later Shirley Patterson and Nana Canning were forced to resign owing to other duties.

The first social event of the year was the initiation party, held at the Knights of Columbus Hall. The members of the Sorority had the privilege of coming in evening clothes, but the new members wore baby clothes. Half way through the dance, the selected three performed for the crowd.

On December 26th a luncheon was held at the Tea Kettle Inn, after which some of the members attended a show.

The Christmas Party was held on Saturday, December 27th. Each member asked a boy and another couple, and then they all went back to the home of one of the members for doughnuts and coffee.

It was decided that we would enlarge the Sorority in the middle of the term by the addition of some new members. For the purpose of introducing the new members to the Sorority a Bowling Party was held at Gibson's parlors.

It was arranged to hold an Anniversary Party at the Palliser Dinner Dance in April. The table was decorated with Sorority colors. Each member was provided with a corsage.

the way they have been filled in previous years. It is not enough to merely try to equal the present record, for no institution will stand still. It will either go forward or fall back. There is a place for some of you on the Students' Council; the various clubs and social activities must have leadership, while athletes are needed for the track, football, hockey and basketball teams if Western is to maintain its place as the banner school of the Province. We have the teachers, we have the students, all we need is the application.

Your Executive appreciates the full-hearted support of the student body given to all the school's activities throughout the past year and the guidance afforded by the teachers. Without this support and guidance the school year could not have been the success it was. We only hope that we, as your executive, merited this kindness.

it, in addition to scholastic attainments; in memory of Western students who have or may give their lives in this second World War.

Educationalists recommend Western as the type of school to meet the needs of modern education. We are living in an industrial era and pupils must be educated for practical citizenship, in addition to any specified profession.

Mothers, we should be more conversant with our school curriculum, its teachers and the doors of opportunity open to our children. Come to the Home and School meetings at 3.15 p.m. every third Wednesday in each month and show we are interested in modern education and will co-operate with the teaching staff, that our children may be educated to qualify for the great task of democracy for all Canadian citizens.

—Mrs. N. S. Symons.

THE BEST INVESTMENT PLAN

The service we render our fellow man
Is truly the best investment plan,
The kind words spoken and deeds we do
Come back to us in friends so true.

For the things that really make life dear
Is filling others' hours with cheer—
And it is not so much the cost of thing
As the message of love we strive to bring.

For neither wealth, nor fame nor power
Can soothe the heart in its darkest hour;
A pleasant word and a kindly deed
Are things of life that people need.

And though we serve for love or gold
The good we do comes back tenfold—
And the service we render our fellow man
Is truly the best investment plan.

Garbutt Graduates at work in the modern offices of the British American Oil Company Limited.

IT'S A DIFFICULT DECISION!

You will be making an important choice this year. You will be deciding whether to accept an unskilled job with an immediate salary or to secure further training which will lead to a position with a brighter future. If you are one of those with brighter vision you will spend a relatively short time securing specialized training so that you can more quickly render valuable service for the duration of the war—and be equipped for continued advancement after the war ends.

Enter early in July and go through without interruption to Graduation—and the thrill of your first pay cheque.
You are individually instructed and personally promoted.

JUNIOR HOCKEY

This year's hard-hitting juniors put up a real fight for the championship, but despite this, they lost out to Crescent.

In the opening game Western lost to Central, the score being 4-1. In the second game Western made a comeback by out-skating Crescent to the tune of a 4-1 score. In the last game of the preliminaries, Western chalked up a 4-2 victory over St. Mary's. In the sudden death play-offs, Western lost to St. Mary's, the score being 4-1. Crescents finally beat St. Mary's to win the championship.

Good clean play, fast skating, and smart stick handling characterized the form played by these boys. Credit for this goes to their able coach, Mr. Parry.

ODE TO THE WESTERN MIRROR

The Western Mirror, a paper of fame,
Has a reputation behind its name.
Anything from news to scandal,
Its capable editor knows how to handle.
Its jokes are original; its comics are great,
They usually show somebody coming in late.
Reports on basketball, and on clubs,
It goes to show we are not "dubs".
When you want to know what your girl friend is doing
Just look in the column under "wooing".
Lists of all the swing bands, with records to date,
Are in "Tuneful Topics", found on page eight.
If there is anything else you would like to read,
Buy a paper on Friday, and do your good deed.

—Joe Gilbert.

Wife—"No, who?"

Man—"You."

Wife—"Oh no, you wouldn't."

Once upon a time three bears were walking on the desert.

Papa Bear sat on a cactus and said "Ouch!"

Mama Bear did likewise and said "Oh!"

Baby Bear sat on a cactus and said nothing, just sat.

Mama Bear turned to Papa Bear and said, "Gosh, I hope we're not raising one of those Dead End Kids."

TEACHERS CAN'T COMPLAIN

Ever thought it over,
Why teachers turn grey,
Gosh, 'tis no wonder
That students all say,
"Abolish all homework,
Give us some fun,
You said 'twas healthy
To play 'neath the sun."

For hours we're imprisoned
Just waitin' for noon,
Gosh, can't even mumble
Or whistle a tune,
Now teachers may turn grey,
They can't complain,
For poor worn-out students
Almost turn insane.

—Anne Belzberg, XI-J.

uted for 1942 by the Calgary School Board, and the Home and School Association. The scholarship winner is given a trip to Eastern Canada where he lives as the guest of a French-speaking family in Trois Pistoles, Quebec. The trip, besides being very interesting and educational, is designed to further improve the student's ability to speak French. The scholarship is open to all French 3 students or graduates. The French Summer School at Banff also offers for 1942, four other French scholarships. Last year the scholarship was won by Marjorie Lick of Crescent Heights, and for the two preceding years it was won by Bob Jones and Gerald Hankins, both of Western.

Each Friday a smaller group of "Cercle Francais" meet in their respective high schools. This inner cercle prepares members for future executive work. At Western this club is known as "The French Club." They are now producing a one-act French comedy, "Fatal Zera", proceeds to be contributed to the scholarship fund. There will be a public performance on May 15th. The cast includes Barbara Fish, Allan Dowsly, Muriel Buchanan, Ken Simpson, assisted by E. Szilagyi, F. MacDonald, D. Johnston and J. Skene

A FRIEND

A friend! What is a friend! My friend is he who laughs with me, who weeps with me; one who encourages, praises, rebukes; who comes to me at the wedding feast or stands with me beside the coffin; who listens to my hopes, my fears, my aims, my despair; who rejoices in my successes; who does not despise me in my misfortune.

Girl—"You're just like the horizon."

Guy—"How's that?"

Girl—"You never get any closer."

Thomas Becket led a dissipated life—three knights killed him.

McLaren—"I'm going to speak my mind."

Gladys—"Ah, silence at last."

BUSINESS STAFF

Without the co-operation of the Business Staff under Marion Macdonald, this book could never have been published. We extend to all the staff our sincere thanks for their untiring efforts. Those members pictured on Page 54 are: M. Jefferson, M. Bergerson, J. Papworth, M. Macdonald, J. Morrison, K. Kell, M. Sturrock. Inserts: A. Wea and B. Loshack.

When men converse about women, it is, of course, figuratively speaking.

It sounds strange but it's cute, little calves that make men horse around.

REV. ALFRED BRIGHT

B.A., B.D.

Minister of Grace Presbyterian Church

God will not call you to account for the four or five talents you have not received, but He will ask a strict account for that one which He has entrusted to you, and which is your special grace.

The Year Book has yet to be printed which does not contain this bit of fantasy:

"What have you done?", St. Peter asked,
"That I should admit you here?"
"I ran the 'Acatec'," the editor said,
"At Western for one long year."
St. Peter pityingly shook his head,
And gravely touched the bell;
"Come in, poor thing, select a harp,
You've had your share of Hell."
